

(the Company)

9 DISCLOSURE POLICY

Introduction

This continuous disclosure policy sets out the procedure for:

- identifying material price sensitive information;
- reporting such information to the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) for review; and
- ensuring the Company achieves best practice in complying with its continuous disclosure obligations under the Corporations Act and ASX Limited (ASX) Listing Rules; and ensuring the Company and individual officers do not contravene the Corporations Act or ASX Listing Rules.

This continuous disclosure policy applies to Directors and those members of senior management who are most likely to be in possession of, or become aware of, the relevant information. The Company's staff needs to be aware of the existence of the policy and to be familiar with its terms so that they can assist with reporting of potentially sensitive information to the appropriate persons within the Company.

Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to ensure that Company announcements are:

- made in a timely manner;
- are factual;
- do not omit material information; and
- are expressed in a clear and objective manner that allows investors to assess the impact of the information when making investment decisions.

Continuous Disclosure Protocol - Commitment

The Company is committed to:

- ensuring that Shareholders have the opportunity to access externally available information issued by the Company;
- providing full and timely information to the market about the Company's activities; and
- complying with the obligations contained in the ASX Listing Rules and the Corporations Act relating to continuous disclosure.

Underlying Principle

The Company has obligations under the Corporations Act and ASX Listing Rules to keep the market fully informed on information which may have a material effect on the price or value of the Company's securities, or influence an investment decision on its shares or securities, and to correct any material mistake or misinformation in the market. The Company discharges these obligations by releasing information to the ASX in the form of an ASX release or disclosure in other relevant documents.

Exceptions to ASX Listing Rule 3.1 on Continuous Disclosure

ASX Listing Rule 3.1 provides that disclosure is not required where:

- a reasonable person would not expect the information to be disclosed;
- the information is confidential; and
- one or more of the following applies:
 - (i) it is a breach of law to disclose the information; or
 - (ii) the information concerns an incomplete proposal or negotiation; or
 - (iii) the information is insufficiently definite to warrant disclosure; or
 - (iv) the information is generated for internal management purposes; or
 - (v) the information is a trade secret.

All three must be met for disclosure not to be required.

ASX Listing Rule 3.1

ASX Listing Rule 3.1 requires that the Company immediately notify the ASX of any information which it becomes aware of concerning the Company that a reasonable person would expect to materially affect the price or value of the securities.

A reasonable person would be taken to expect information to have a material effect on the price or value of securities if it would, or would be likely to, influence persons who commonly invest in securities in deciding whether or not to subscribe for, buy or sell the securities.

Hence, information is considered to be "material" if there is a substantial likelihood that it would influence an investor in deciding whether to trade in or hold the Company's shares/securities.

The Company becomes aware of information if any of its Directors or Executive Officers has or ought reasonably to have, come into possession of the information in the course of the performance of his or her duties as a Director or Executive Officer of the Company.

The disclosure obligation does not generally apply where the information is exogenous or generally available.

POLICYThe Policy

The following procedures will apply to safeguard against breaches of the Company's continuous disclosure obligations:

- Directors and senior management must immediately notify the MD as soon as they become aware of information that should be considered for release to the market (material information which is not to be disclosed);
- the CEO will:
 - (i) review the material information reported;

- (ii) determine, in consultation with all necessary parties as appropriate, whether any of the material information is required to be disclosed to the ASX; and
 - (iii) co-ordinate the actual form of disclosure with the relevant members of management.
- where a decision is made, that the item or information does not warrant an ASX release, the CEO is to advise directors of the rationale for the decision;
 - in the event that the Company believes it has a significant and continuous disclosure obligation, the CEO has authority to make releases to the ASX without Board authority although he will endeavour to obtain such approval. In the event of the CEO not being available, approval from a director will be required.

The Company will adhere to the following procedures in relation to the review and release of ASX announcements:

- Where possible all key announcements are to be circulated to and reviewed by all members of the Board providing such review does not breach the immediate disclosure requirements of ASX Listing Rule 3.1;
- All members of the Board are to provide the CEO, Chairman or Company Secretary their written or verbal consent to the release of the announcement;
- Where appropriate, any named parties in the announcement should also be given the opportunity to review the announcement prior to its release;
- The CEO and in his absence the Chairman or Company Secretary is to be given the final signoff before release to the ASX;
- The Company Secretary will electronically release the announcement to the ASX;
- As soon as ASX have confirmed the release the Company Secretary will circulate the final release to all Board members and post the announcement on the Company's website.

Persons to whom this policy applies

This policy applies to:

- all Directors of the Company and its subsidiaries;
- all members of senior management; and
- all employees.

Obligations

- As soon as there is awareness that information:
 - (i) is not generally available (i.e. the information in question has not been included in any Annual Report, ASX Release or other publication of the Company); and
 - (ii) may be price sensitive (i.e. it is likely to have a financial or reputation impact upon the Company that may be considered material)

the CEO must be provided with all the necessary information to ensure that the matter is disclosed appropriately to all required parties.
- In order that the obligations under the above paragraph are complied with, there must be assurance that such procedures as considered appropriate are implemented to ensure if any person who reports to the Company becomes aware of or is in possession of information that is not generally available and/or which may be price sensitive, that person will promptly notify the Company of such information.

Market Speculation and Rumours

The ASX interprets Listing Rule 3.1 as requiring the Company to make a clarifying statement or announcement to the ASX in circumstances where it becomes aware that speculation or comment is affecting the price or volume of trading in its securities.

The Company has an obligation to make such disclosure as is necessary in order to correct a false market in its securities and ensure investors are not trading on false or misleading information. Normally the ASX will indicate to the Company when it believes this is required.

Release of information to others

The Company must not release material price sensitive information to any person if that information is required to be disclosed to the ASX, until cleared by the ASX. The Chairman will advise all relevant parties when the release has been announced by the ASX. All the information disclosed through ASX is to be made available by the Company to shareholders after clearance by ASX.

Presentations/Enquires

For all information/presentations/briefings etc which are to be provided to third parties, each individual is responsible for ensuring that a copy of the material is provided to the CEO and Chairman prior to presenting that information externally.

All inquiries from third parties must be referred to the Chairman. All material presented at an analyst briefing, bank or other third party must be approved by or referred through the Chairman prior to the briefing.

All inquiries from the media must be referred to the Chairman.

Interview by employees

No employee may give an interview or make a presentation unless express authority or specific permission is received from the Chairman.

An employee who is given permission by the Chairman to give an interview or make a presentation must notify the Board of the date and time for the interview and must give a copy of any presentation to the Board.

MANAGEMENT OF THE POLICYSpecific Responsibilities

The Board are responsible for:

- ensuring that the system for the disclosure of all material information to the ASX in a timely fashion is operating;
- reviewing proposed announcements by the Company to the ASX and liaising with the other board members in relation to the form of any ASX releases;
- periodically reviewing the Company's disclosure procedures in light of changes to ASX Listing Rules or Corporations Act and recommending any necessary changes to the procedures.

The Company Secretary is specifically responsible for:

- liaising with the ASX in relation to continuous disclosure issues;
- keeping a record of all ASX and other releases that have been made; and
- ensuring that the system for the disclosure of all material information to the ASX in a timely fashion is operating;

BREACH OF POLICY AND PENALTIES

Breach of Policy

The Company contravenes its Australian continuous disclosure obligations if it fails to notify the ASX of the information required by Listing Rule 3.1 to be disclosed. If the Company fails to meet this obligation its officers may be guilty of an offence under the Corporations Act.

Liability and penalties

THE COMPANY

- If the Company contravenes its continuous disclosure obligations, it may face:
 - criminal liability with a fine if the contravention is intentional or reckless;
 - civil liability for any loss or damage suffered by any person as a result of failure to disclose relevant information to the ASX; and
 - de-listing from the ASX.
- The ASIC can also institute proceedings under the ASIC Act 1989.

OTHERS

The Company's officers (including its directors), employees or advisers who are involved in the contravention, may also face criminal (monetary fine and/or 5 years imprisonment) and civil liability as outlined above.

Last Updated:
July 2017